Bobbitt Declines.

CRAB ORCHARD, Jan. 26.—After a long silence I deem it my duty to answer some of the numerous calls made upon me to run for county attorney and representative, some of which came from my colored friends, one of whom is the able tonsorial artist, Hlakemore, who says that when Bobbitt runs at Crab Orchard "politics is dead." Now I should like to run for and discharge the duties of both these offices—they are not incompatible and I concede the ability to discharge the duties appertaining to each; upon this my friends and I are agreed, and as the parties are so nearly divided in this county, I do not see how either can win unless both parties put me on their tickets for about two of their best offices, but if they think they can win without me go ahead and then after the election I can say, "I told you so." I would announce myself for county attorney, but I could not think of opposing my friend the grand and lordly Helm. I would announce for representative, but I could not think of opposing my friend, neighbor and quasi relative, Judge Hachman, and therefore I shall remain a solitary passenger on the crowded bark that will plow its way up the classic stream of Salt river after the primary election. But I desire to say now to my friends that I shall be a candidate for Congress in 1902 and knowing the Declaration of Independence by heart, and Adams' speech in support of it, and repeat from memory the biographical sketches of the first eight presidents, Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, John Quincy Adams, Andrew Jackson and Martin Van Buren and with the resolutions of 1798, embroidered with classic quotations from Homer, Horace, Euripides, Ovid, Goethe, Cowper, Chaucer, Tennyson, Pope, Dryden, Pollock, Shakespeare, Byron, Grey, Milton, and a host of others and knowing Cohn's Financial School by rote, I am a little curious to know who will have the temerity to oppose me, and shall take much pleasure in going a hundred miles to hear the joint discussion between us. I hope the two parties can get along this year in their county races without me, as I am now very busy this winter sharpening all of my tools to cut and hew everything before me in the Congressional race that will occur in November, 1902. Should I have opposition then it will only show that the poet was right when he said, "Poets rush in where angels dare not tread." Well I must close and betake myself to books on the race for Congress, till which I say: Farewell my friends, farewell my foes, My peace with these, my love with those.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Russell H. Conwell, of Philadelphia, has baptized over 4,000 converts.

Rev. H. N. Paulsner was called to be the pastor of the First Presbyterian church Tuesday by one of the largest congregational meetings ever seen. The vote was unanimous. He has preached here as a stated supply for one year, and his sermons have been spiritual, able, instructive and interesting. The church has been blessed under his ministry.—Hillsboro, O., Cor. Enquirer.

Rev. S. S. Deering, one of the oldest ministers of the Kentucky Conference, M. E. Church South, died at his home at Nicholasville Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, aged 80 years. He was the father of Hon. Deering, founder of the Lexington Transcript, and uncle of Rev. Jno. R. Deering, of Fayette. He organized the Deering Camp Ground at Park's Hill, in Nicholas county, and was the one at High Bridge. His remains were buried at Nicholasville Monday.

A PROMINENT CHICAGO WOMAN SPEAKS.

Prof. Rosa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by Craig & Hocker.

By the Queen's expressed desire she will be given a military funeral. It will take place Feb. 2 at Windsor. The body will be removed from Osborne House on the night of the 1st, and will reach London the next morning. Then it will be conveyed under elaborate escort across the city and sent to Windsor. An interesting ceremony was performed in London, when the heralds entered the city and proclaimed the new King.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

There is no sense in Monticello and Burnside going off to themselves to point just because Somerset has both small pox and open saloons. These sort of injuries are reserved for grown people and little folks must not cry for everything they see.—Journal.

W. W. Goddard died at Harrodsburg of pneumonia, in the 82d year of his age. He was a leading farmer and during his long life amassed a good fortune, besides making a reputation for honesty and fair dealing which made him a power for good in his community.

The Middleboro Town and Lands Company will, it is said, make a summer resort out of Middleboro. The company will build plike roads to the places of interest, erect a large number of Swiss cottages on Lake Thiermere, and will make the town an ideal place for pleasure seekers.

The city council of Lawrenceburg were dissatisfied with the last census of the town as taken by government officials, and recently ordered a new count. The enumerators report that 2,325 people live within the city limits, while the officials appointed by the census bureau could only find 1,300 people. An effort will be made to have the last count made official.

Joe Ellis, an old colored man from Altamont, got off the train at Harrodsburg with his throat cut almost from ear to ear, the wound barely missing the arteries in his neck and cutting his windpipe in two. After Dr. Burnside dressed the wound Ellis said he was going through the tunnel near Ferdale, in Bell county, when a man wearing a mask and carrying a dark lantern, seized him and cut him. His assailant then said he was mistaken in the man and helped him out of the tunnel.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Glens Terrill, of Paint Lick, died after a short illness on last Thursday, aged 21 months.

Mrs. Charles W. Frisbie and little daughter, Gladys, left Saturday to join Mr. Frisbie to St. Louis, where he has secured a promising business position.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox, residents of the Falls Lick road vicinity, and their nine children, have all been down at the same time with the prevailing epidemic—measles.

An orchestra has recently been organized in this city with 12 talented musicians as members—four young ladies and the remainder gentlemen. Proprietor Lang, of the Garrard, is director.

Miss Ella Lusk, county superintendent, is solicited not only by the public school teachers, but by a host of friends to put her name before the democratic committee for renomination. Miss Lusk is said to be unsurpassed in electioneering.

M. D. Hughes is a candidate for police judge, subject to any action that may be taken by the democratic committee. He is a staunch and indefatigable worker for the democratic party, and has reason to expect their consideration.

Dr. Kennedy, professor of the magnetic healing treatment, and only a recent resident of this place, went to Nicholasville Sunday, where he was united in marriage to Miss Carmine Davis. They will take rooms at the New Garrard.

Miss Sallie Smith, a member of Mr. Samuel Spoonamore's family, and a Mr. Sutton, of the same neighborhood, drove to town Thursday and were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Baptist parsonage, Rev. J. H. Woolford performing the ceremony.

Thompson Saunders, aged 43 years, died at his home at Buckeye on Sunday night. He had suffered for some days excruciatingly of lock-jaw and death came to him as a great relief. He was a son of James Saunders and leaves a wife and several children. Interment here Monday.

The railroad enthusiasts are much encouraged over the liberal contributions that are daily being subscribed. The citizens of Garrard are thoroughly awakened to the importance of securing the Louisville Southern extension, and feel confident that within 18 months this county will enjoy the advantages of another railroad.

Mr. Jacob Newland, a well known farmer and Baptist preacher of the Upper end of the county, died Friday and the burial took place in the cemetery here Saturday. Several weeks ago Mr. Newland punctured his finger with a thorn and in a few days the whole hand was much inflamed, from which blood poisoning soon followed. He was about 70 years old and belonged to the Lincoln county relationship of Newlands.

The shooting of John Stotts, of Jessamine, by Dillard Littrell, of the Buckeye section of this county, and the surrender of Littrell to Marshal D. Turner and his subsequent removal from this place to Nicholasville, by the sheriff of Jessamine, was the result, so says rumor, of what was first intended as a jest. Stotts was indebted to Littrell to the amount of $60; he laughingly told his creditor he did not intend to pay the debt; Littrell, already in an irascible frame of mind from too much whiskey, became terribly irritated with anger, drew his pistol and fired five times, two shots taking effect, one in the head and one in the side. Stotts is not said to be in a dangerous condition, and declares he will kill Littrell on sight, even through the prison bars.

A Breathitt county man was shot and killed while reading a newspaper. It was the Louisville Post or Dispatch he was reading, he who did the shooting will be acquitted by any Kentucky jury.—Glasgow Times.

THE Citizen's National Bank of Somerset is now a certainty. The stock has been well distributed and the required amount, $50,000, subscribed. The promoters expect to have the new institution in full operation within a few weeks at the furthest. It will have no connection whatever with the suspended Somerset National Bank.—Journal.

THIS office holds a check on the Jewish Morris Bank at Montgomery, Ala., which closed its doors Saturday. It was sent by our old friend and former townsman, Supt. J. I. McKINNEY, who was clever enough to telegraph us later that the bank had "busted." We sincerely hope that he will lose nothing, but as he usually keeps a good deposit we fear he will.

ARM MANGLED.—Old Mr. Brahay, of the Ottenheim section, had his left arm so badly mangled Friday that it was necessary to amputate it at the wrist. He had cut down a tree and when he started to get out of the way of it as it fell, his foot caught in a grape vine and the tree caught the member between it and another tree, with the above fearful result.

GARLAND SINGLETON, who has made a most excellent school superintendent, asks in this issue for an endorsement. His democracy is as good as the best and he is as clever as the days are long. The schools of Lincoln county have flourished under his supervision and he has made friends of teachers, patrons and pupils, who will be glad to know that he wants to serve them again.

THE Chicago Blue Club gave a most delightful entertainment at Walton's Opera House Friday night to a fairly good audience. The quartette singing was the finest ever heard in Stanford, while the solos of Miss Horner and several of the gentlemen were of a very high order. The Knights of Pythias, who are to be congratulated on bringing so good a "show" to Stanford, cleared about $35, which will likely go to the proposed Widows' and Orphans' Home of that order. The Knights all wore lodge colors and made themselves useful as ticket-sellers, ticket-takers, &c.

LANCASTER.—The democratic county committee met yesterday and made the following nominations: For county judge, A. D. Ford; county clerk, Squire J. A. Doty; assessor, Capt. Horner; Bryantville district, Capt. I. M. Dunn, and for representative, Hon. H. H. Tomlinson. The ticket is a strong one and it will win in November. The committee had in view the strength of each man, and took into consideration everything that might effect the races. II.

THE report is being circulated that I have pulled off the track in the race for assessor since my connection with the Curry Grocery Co. at Junction City. Such reports are inclined to injure me and I take this method of notifying the people that I am still a citizen of Lincoln county, a candidate until the last day in the evening, and I assure my friends my prospects are O. K. T. I. Wright.

HENRY HICK, formerly of this county, was found near where the old depot used to stand at Livingston Saturday morning with a fearful gash in his head and almost frozen. It was at first thought he was dead, but the doctors finally resuscitated him after much work. He was unconscious at last accounts, but it is believed that he will recover. Fool play is expected, while there are those who think he was struck by a train.

THE Lexington Democrat has this interview with a Lincoln county man: "Col. J. W. Guest, of Crab Orchard, who is here to see after some of his fine mares, is one of the strongest and most uncompromising democrats in the State. Asked about political matters in Lincoln county, he said: There is only one republican in Crab Orchard, and he is kept in line by Federal office. The rest of us are all for Goebel and the Goebel law, and heartily endorse the disfranchisement of Louisville and the 11th district. There are several candidates for the Legislature in my county, but I shall not vote for any of them until he promises to have a law passed compelling every republican in Lincoln to move into the Ottenheim precinct, and then tack a provision on it disfranchising them forever. Col. Guest will return to 'dearest spot on earth' as he calls Crab Orchard and mingle again with those who love the Lord and the democratic party. Col. Guest is the father-in-law of Mr. Boyle Gill Hays, of the Louisville Post, and thinks of dismembering him for letting Dick Knott make a republican out of him."

CRAB ORCHARD.

The various ice houses are being put in readiness, awaiting the ice king to assume his reign.

Judge Andrew Buchanan spent a few days in Stanford last week. Here's success to him in every worthy undertaking.

Mr. William Bentley, of Louisville, spent a few days with his father's family. His many friends were glad to see him looking so well.

The order of orange blossoms fills the air here and beautifully intermingles with the spotless snow. Here are congratulations and best wishes in advance.

The lovely grounds of Crab Orchard Springs are being renovated and greatly improved. The horticultural department is being greatly enlarged and the outlook for a prosperous season is decidedly encouraging. The new proprietor and his amiable wife are gaining enviable reputations as host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart returned Saturday from an extended trip through the mountains. His eye-sight seems to be improving but very little. Mr. J. F. Holman is convalescent from an attack of grip. Mrs. Rebecca Jones is on the sick list. Dr. Patten is gradually improving. Mr. W. Galus and wife have gone to Lancaster for their future home. J. Steenberger and family moved to Danville from this place Monday. Miss Bailey, of Washington county, is a pleasant visitor to Mr. P. Houbitt and sisters. Mr. A. H. Bastin, of Lancaster, spent a few days here last week in the interest of the telephone, which is rendering satisfactory service to our people. He has disposed of his farm here to his brother for a good sum.

Gov. Nash, of Ohio, refused to interfere in the case of Rosslyn H. Ferrel and the murderer of Express Messenger Lane will be electrocuted March 1.

The Spanish cannon which was loaned to Lexington by the United States Government and disappeared shortly after its arrival there some months ago, has been found in a rubbish heap.

There is general sorrow throughout Italy because of the death of Verdi, and the Italian Senate devoted a full day to eulogies of the great composer. The King sent a message of condolence to the family.

In a shooting affray at Mt. Sterling between Deputy Sheriff James Stockdale and William Morton, a farmer, Stockdale was probably fatally wounded and Morton sustained two slight wounds. The shooting grew out of a dispute over county politics.

THE MOTHER'S FAVORITE.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

The advantage of reducing country editors into the service of metropolitan newspapers is illustrated in the case of Editor Walton. The entire editorial and editorial staff of the Lexington Morning Democrat went on the sick list for four days, leaving the chief to make the paper brighter and more voluminous, which he did almost unaided in one department.—Somerford Journal.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Reduced rates to New York City via the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway. On account of the spring meeting of the New York Merchants Association, the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway will sell round trip tickets from Lexington at 14 fare on the certificate plan, good going February 13th to the 17th, and March 1st to the 14th, and good to return 30 days from date of sale. Tickets will be good to stop over at Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. If you have not yet registered with the secretary of the New York Association, you better do so at once. The C. & O. route is the only line from Lexington and Central Kentucky with through sleeper and dining car service without change. Any information desired cheerfully given, or sleeper space reserved on receipt of advice. George W. Harney, Div. Pass. Agt., Lexington, Ky.

The Harboursville Pathfinder is violently opposing the candidacy of Legation Luke Hampton for county judge of Knox county because Hampton testified for the Commonwealth in the Goubel murder conspiracy. The Williamsburg Times, another republican paper, says: "Hampton represented this district at Frankfort the past year and during all the trying Goubel times played second fiddle to John Henry Wilson, whose political death is known. The good people of Knox have only one thing to do and that is to elect Hampton with his master. Murder is bad but treachery is worse."
